Read the following passage and answer the following question by choosing the most appropriate option.

Once upon a time I went for a week's holiday in the Continent with an Indian friend. We both enjoyed ourselves and were sorry when the week was over, but on parting our behaviour was absolutely different. He was plunged in despair. He felt that because the holiday was over all happiness was over until the world ended. He could not express his sorrow too much, but in me the Englishman came out strong. I could not see what there was to make a fuss about. It was not as if we were parting forever or dying. 'Buck up' I said, 'do buck up'. He refused to buck up, and I left him plunged in gloom.

Why was the Indian friend plunged in despair?

Read the following passage and answer the following question by choosing the most appropriate option.

Once upon a time I went for a week's holiday in the Continent with an Indian friend. We both enjoyed ourselves and were sorry when the week was over, but on parting our behaviour was absolutely different. He was plunged in despair. He felt that because the holiday was over all happiness was over until the world ended. He could not express his sorrow too much, but in me the Englishman came out strong. I could not see what there was to make a fuss about. It was not as if we were parting forever or dying. 'Buck up' I said, 'do buck up'. He refused to buck up, and I left him plunged in gloom.

What is the continent in the context of the passage?

- ☐ A. An island
☐ C. African safari

- ☐ B. The countryside
☐ D. Europe
